

Stuntman of Your Dreams

Escape With Romeo

Nothing's wrong in your world you live a happy life every crash test of our love I did survive

In the bunkers of happiness we are hungry as before I did everything to serve you well but you wanted more

so here I am
the stuntman of your dreams

Let me jump from a bridge let me fall from a plane let me get bitten by dogs it will be the same

Let me drown in the sea let me get washed on the shore let me burn in your cadillac you will love me more

so here I am
