

Lost

Electric Callboy

I feel like a reject
I feel like a reject
I feel like a reject

All the pretty little things
That you say and do
I feel like a reject
And the look in your eyes
That I can't let go
I feel like a reject

Too many times I haven't been with you
You never left
You always stood by my side
I, I, I

Every time I realize
That it feels like heaven
'Cause hell is ending
When we unite
Just you and I

And again, and again, and again
I'm coming home
'Cause I don't want to just
Drift away
Just drift away

And again, and again, and again
I'm coming home
'Cause I don't want to just
Drift away
Just drift away

I feel like a reject
I feel like a reject

Every time that I leave
I would rather stay
I feel like a reject
'Cause I'm missing all the things
That I can't replay
I feel like a reject

Too many times I thought about leaving
I'm far away
The city doesn't feel like mine
I, I, I

Every time I realize
That it feels like heaven
'Cause hell is ending
When we unite
Just you and I

And again, and again, and again
I'm coming home

'Cause I don't want to just
Drift away
Just drift away

And again, and again, and again
I'm coming home
'Cause I don't want to just
Drift away
Just drift away

I feel like a reject

Every time I realize
'Cause hell is ending
When we unite
Just you and I

Just you and I

And again, and again, and again
I'm coming home
'Cause I don't want to just
Drift away
Just drift away
