

Fill Me With Love

Esoterica

She wears a white dress she's as innocent as I am her delicate fingers penetrate the nylon darling don't you hold back I've been waiting for you patiently I'm dieing to talk but you don't have a clue id swim through a river of roses for you and I fell hard

some say went too far

fill me with air

Her stethoscope is cold and its chasing round the goose flesh and making me feel peculiar the apothecary he told me if I took them you might see me so I to took a pill then I took two I swallowed the whole damned bottle for you

fill me with air

fell me with air
fill me with love
Fill me with air
fill with love
