Tell me
How could you possibly
Think this comes so easily
When you're changing your mind
All the Goddamn time
And then you base your life on someone else's theories

And then you try
To re-invent the whole world
Like it's yours

You want it, you got it
You need it, you have it
All you need to do
Is ask me the right questions
You want it, you got it
You need it, you have it
All you need to do
Is ask me the right questions now
Ask me the right questions now, yeah

Tell me did you think of that yourself
Or did you steal it to get wealth
Do you believe when people tell you how great that you are?
You rip-off

And then you try
To re-invent the whole world
Like it's yours

You want it, you got it
You need it, you have it
All you need to do
Is ask me the right questions
You want it, you got it
You need it, you have it
All you need to do
Is ask me the right questions now
Ask me the right questions now, yeah

I hear their voices inside
I feel no more time
To think this through
I'm beating you
We all have the time
Minds falling in line
And soon you will find
I will fight

You want it, you got it
You need it, you have it
All you need to do
Is ask me the right questions now
You want it, you got it
You need it, you have it
All you need to do

Ask me the right questions now
