

The War Is Over!

Eterna

Look at the window, to see the destruction
And maybe I'll never go back to the streets again.
I heard at midnight the sirens warning
And maybe I'll never go back to the streets again.

And live Happy no More

I saw a child
Burned to her skin
Scaping the for Starvation
The signs she will get forever, and never!

Then rool up your slleves and get buzy
And prepare your soul for hard work
Don't cry anymore and try again
If need for all night
The Power of man gets to the end

Look at the window, to see the destruction
And maybe I'll never go back to the streets again.
Hear on the radio the war is over.
And I need to build my nation again.

And live happy no more

Down on my knees
Our destiny
Is crying for Justice
Oh Lord please have mercy.

The war is over
Felling of emptiness
My body, heart and soul.
Oh please Lord, have mercy, have mercy!

Then rool up your slleves and get buzy
And prepare your soul for hard work
Don't cry anymore and try again
If you need for all night
The Power of man gets to the ends

Down on my knees
Our destiny
Is crying for Justice
Oh Lord please have mercy.

The war is over
Felling of emptiness
My body, heart and soul.
Oh please Lord, have mercy, have mercy!

Then rool up your slleves and get buzy
And prepare your soul for hard work
Don't cry anymore and try again
If you need for all night
The Power of man gets to the ends 4x
