

While You Bleed

Eternal Legacy

-VERSE 1-

The snow that falls or whatever it is, that we've know about for all this ti me...

You live in a place that you call your home, but you still begin to wine and cry...

-CHORUS-

Hole in the wall
Hole in your head
It's just your need
Run from despair
Can't you see why
It makes me bleed

Hole in the wall
Hole in your head
It's just your greed
Run from despair
But can't you see why
It makes me feed

-VERSE 2-

As I turn around each of these times, I hear the sound of shame and rant...
So don't you complain, I'm sick of the same, the irony just makes me go mad...

-CHORUS-

Hole in the wall
Hole in your head
It's just your need
Run from despair
Can't you see why
It makes me bleed

Hole in the wall
Hole in your head
It's just your greed
Run from despair
But can't you see why
It makes me feed

-BRIDGE-

The sound of pain and the sound of shame...
That calls your name but you're to blame...
Only your own, in your own home...
See yourself, be yourself, kill yourself...

-THEME CHORUS-

We move faster as time goes on...
And our bones begin to crumble away...
It's another situation...

If you need someone to hold your hand...
Don't you think about a lookin at me...
I won't bring a revelation...
To you!

-CHORUS-

Hole in the wall
Hole in your head
It's just your need
Run from despair
Can't you see why
It makes me bleed

Hole in the wall
Hole in your head
It's just your greed
Run from despair
But can't you see why
It makes me feed
