

The Day

Eternal Tears of Sorrow

Breathing fire, the glance of ice,
Deep below a grave of the divine,
The queen of oceans, the sleeping heiress,
Hear my prayers, hear my wish in the winds

Force of anger, raging tides,
Can't stand this burden, the weight of times,
Unleash your power, release my pain,
Take me down under the whirls of your seas

Going down under your waves,
I cannot wait another day to feed the flames,
Leave all my anguish behind

I drown all my dreams in the darkest tides,
I dance with my demons still one more night,
They haunt me until the day arrives

Fly away, i fly on my wings and die again,
My true will to live has come to the end,
And now my day to die has come.
