

Was Lost and Now I'm Sound

Ethereal Pandemonium

How simple to lose the hope
How hard to bear the pain
To see veiled eyes again
To hold numb body...
Breathless I am

Some blue eyes wet by ache...
Warm hand caress' my back...
You're alone now to walk our common roads...

I touch the past to ease the soul...
And I still see the light severe...
Carving in my flesh

He shall guide you
Over the abyss of eternal sorrow
And he'll be there forever as you shall know
To help you deal with death pulling your hand... Towards me...

And again I crave the other shore...
Just like then when I saw dying...
And a piece of my heart deceased...
With something closer...
Than I ever was to me
