

A Change Is Gonna Do Me Good

Etta James

Drained of emotion
Tears run dry
I would give anything
Just to feel all right

Down on my knees
Praying for help
But sometimes you just gotta help yourself

R: I tried so hard to be someone you would love
Seems I would never try hard enough
Though I love you, got to give you up I'm going back to who I was
And I do believe that change is gonna do me good

Let's take this moment to say goodbye
Look at each other right straight in the eye
Don't look back, baby, because I'll be gone
I've got my own life to carry on

R: (2x)

I do believe change, change is gonna do me good
change, change is gonna do me good
