

If You Are But a Dream

Etta Jones

If you are but a dream
I hope I never 'waken
It's more than I can bear
To find that I'm forsaken

If you're a fantasy
Then I am content to be
In love with lovely
And pray my dreams come true

I long to kiss you
But I would not dare
I am so afraid
That you might vanish in the air

So darling
If our romance should break up
I hope I never wake up
If you are but a dream

I long to kiss you
But I would not dare
I am so afraid
That you might vanish in the air

So darling
If our romance should break up
I hope I never wake up
If you are but a dream
