Crawl Inside

We fight for the hell of it And we bleed to feel alive We love to get the hate from it And we feed troubled minds We will divide

We will remind you We will survive We live inside you

We crawl inside
We fade away
We blame
We hate
We live inside you
We paralyze
We take away
We hate
We break
We criticize you

We captivate the furious Deception, Our demise We decorate the fear in us With power to fuel the fires Evans Blue
