Underwater

Evans Blue

We start to run
Before we crawl
Run, until we fall

Take a piece of me
Take my eyes
Throw me down
And watch me go blind

But if you see through my eyes like mine
Look past the pain, the memories,
The hollow world you keep inside
So we can rise again. We

Know how it feels to be numb inside and underwater
Know now the enemy
Is alive and undercover

Make peace with me
Free my mind
And wrap my head around
This life and realize
