Afloat

Hold on Hold on Looking for a reason to go on Alone again On my own again Now everything has turned From right to wrong

Oh, trying to keep afloat I'm on a sinking boat Trying to keep afloat

Begining to find I'm low on time Floating on the ocean in a storm The shore is gone And the end has drowned But hope only shines The brighter in the night

Oh, fighting to keep afloat The world's a sinking boat Fighting to keep afloat

Oh I'm watching it pass me by It's flashing before my eyes I'd die for another try But the world is sinking Let it all go Let it go Evermore
