

Seasons Will Change

Evermore

Read between the lines
On the palms of your hands
Certain things about you
I will never understand
Now I'm caught like a moth
In the spiders web
You tear me to shreds
And I cannot pretend

Where we walk
Upon the cliffs so steep
? river
The water running deep

The seasons will change
Horizons will open for you
The seasons will change
There's nothing that you or I can do

Cos we're all headin out
Upon the cliffs so steep
And we're all holding on
To promises that we can't keep

Season will change
Horizons will open for you
The seasons will change
There's nothing that you or I can do

[solo]

Life of the grand
Comin back again
Will you tell me the way to go

For the night ahead
Na na na ahead
Na na na ahead
Caught along the way?
For the night ahead
Na na na ahead
Na na na ahead
Caught along the way
