

Someday, Somehow

Every Avenue

Headlights, burnin' on it,
Interstate pavement, I take a
Slow drag, my mind slips away
Away, away

It's a long night down the 95
Tryin' to beat the sunrise
Stayin' up all night
I'm not sleeping 'til I cross the stateline

Someday, somehow I'll make it home
And I, I'll stick around
One day I'll say
„No more packin' up, I'm settling down”
Someday, someday I'll figure it out
Someday, somehow

High school, sweetheart servin'
Broken spirits at the local bar
First love with a new last name, yeah

Next stop my old home
It's got a new front porch where flowers used to grow
Everybody has somethin' to show, I got a thousand different stories
And nothing to hold

Someday, somehow I'll make it home
And I, I'll stick around
One day I'll say
„No more packin' up, I'm settling down”
Someday, someday I'll figure it out
Someday, somehow

No more birthdays from the telephone
No more holidays spent alone
No more askin' when I'm coming home,
I-I, I'm stickin' around
Yeah, oh

Someday, somehow I'll make it home
And I, I'll stick around
One day I'll say
„No more packin' up, I'm settling down”
Someday, someday I'll figure it out
Someday, somehow
Someday, somehow
Someday, somehow...
