

Pity The Man Who Falls And Has No One To Help Him

Everyday Sunday

You tried to say goodbye
But I want you to change your mind
Don't walk away tonight
Without knowing that it's gonna be alright
Even when you're gone
It's gonna be alright
'Cause I need you to help me out
To get me through
I need you
And I'm gonna be there for you
I'll carry you and you'll be strong
I need you now
I know that we can't stay
In this world forever
But as long as you say
That you will never leave me
Be here by my side
