

Curse On The Creature

Evocation

Confession grows
from stains inside of me as darkness calls
it craves me to reveal force in the darkness, soak in the sin play with the demons revealed bestial eruption curse of the plague bounded protection dissolved a force sadistic
we found upon its blame seductive call
our addiction guides us all reflection throws
its darker side to see
a broken patience
resistance to believe
we broken bastards
pale by our own
our restless fever
has burnt it all
that seeks and finds us hiding curse on that creature that sees our inner deeds and force us to retreat
