Obsession To Prosper

Excalion

Others have gone to paradise, those who made the sacrifice Not everyone did the rightful acts, they've come to end of their laps

Things you did, were they justified, crimes you made you just denied

Forgiveness allowed to everyone, look far behind and see what y ou've done

Do you decide horror and pain Or glory and grace that many claim Don't fear footsteps know what is to be That you will see, you will see

In time when your judgement is called, in a place where many fa ll

Your future gods only know, soon you'll see where you have to g

Step ahead and confess your sins, take what they have to give All chances flown by, too late to kneel and apologize

Do you decide horror and pain
Or glory and grace that many claim
Don't fear footsteps know what is to be
That you will see

Power and desire to prevail is a great temptation No vengeance no grief makes away you can find Will to success in this life ends in an obsession Todays rivalry leads our way and to darkness us binds

"Behold the punishment yourself you set, finally you pay what y ou owe, your debt  $% \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) +\left( 1\right) +$

First time in history you've been justed, no prays for your sou l when bones turn to dust"
