

Heaven's Gate

Exilia

I'm not awake
I'm sleeping in my head
I'm so far away
I can not hear you anymore
I'm running through the fields Never running out of breath
I feel the grain beneath my hands
I'm whispering to the wind
If i had wings I would try to fly Where the angels lie where the love will never die where I'll see you again and the light will always shine where the storm is gone where the dawn will kiss the sun where we'll meet again
I'm looking right through heavens gate
