

Catatonic

Exumer

Sticks and stones will break some bones you will have to fight
Raging on the waves of pain oaths are sworn tonight
Deadly force is taking over murder means delight
Winds of death are blowing strong tearing out your life

Crash and burn that's how you end belief suspends real
Catatonic state of mine time stands still to shield
Destitute is just a phrase we all live in sin
Satan will spread his wings so we can rise again

Breathe fast inhalation
No sound I feel you near
Heart pounds, but nothing moves
Catatonic, Catatonic

Sticks and stones won't break our bones it's you who has to die
Cannot wait for your demise utter any lie
Left to burn at this stake flames are scorching higher
Bones are breaking I won't stop light your funeral pyre

Breathe fast inhalation
No sound I feel you near
Heart pounds, but nothing moves
Catatonic, Catatonic
