

Van Gogh's Ear

Exxplorer

These are words that paint a picture
A picture of love
Words not unspoken
Words not unclear
Words I fear she'll never hear
Van Gogh's ear

I'm not gonna break down
I'm not gonna break down
No...not again
I don't want to break down
Please don't make me break down
Not again

My life: a still life
Where icicles cry
Tears fall like rain
Walls whisper her name
And I can hear through
Van Gogh's ear

I'm not gonna break down
I'm not gonna break down
No...not again
I don't want to break down
Please don't make me break down

All my faults open wide
And I fall down inside, my broken heart
