

Hopeless

Eye Empire

Tell me why we're not over,
creating our pain (creating our pain) then walking away.
Tell me why your stares are empty,
there's no empathy (there's no empathy).
No feeling beneath.
I wanna feel it.

Hopeless and cold,
we run from our pain, we run from our pain
(forever pulling deeper).
Deep down beneath,
a life full of rage, a life full of rage
still remains.

There is time, we'll find answers.
Our hope never fades (our hope never fades).
We'll find our way,
We are time, we are the answers.
We're longing to find (we're longing to find)
for our piece of mind.
I wanna feel it.

Hopeless and cold,
we run from our pain, we run from our pain
(forever pulling deeper).
Deep down beneath,
a life full of rage, a life full of rage.

Hopeless and cold,
we run from our pain, we run from our pain
(forever pulling deeper).
Deep down beneath,
a life full of rage, a life full of rage
still remains.

Hopeless and cold,
we run from our pain, we run from our pain
(forever pulling deeper).
Deep down beneath,
a life full of rage, a life full of rage.

Hopeless and cold,
we run from our pain, we run from our pain
(forever pulling deeper).
Deep down beneath,
a life full of rage, a life full of rage
still remains.
Still remains.
