

I Can't Forget

Eye Empire

Clearly I mention the intention of my words
There's no way to your excuse

What you've intended and defended to your grave
Know that your time's running
Your time's running out

WHOA

So you say you'd take the blame
That you threw it all away
Thought that life was just a game
NO

You can't have a second chance
I've been a more than patient man
Fought until the bitter end

(I CAN'T FORGET)

I can't forget
All the things I've seen
Now it's a part of me
Now it's a part of me
Now it's a part of me

NO

Time will never heal my wounds
I will never feel the grace
There's some things you can't erase
WHOA

Never thought I last this long

I've been a more than patient man
Fought until the bitter end

(I CAN'T FORGET)

I can't forget
All the things I've seen
Now it's a part of me
Now it's a part of me
Now it's a part of me

(Clearly I mention the intention of my words
There's no way to your excuse

What you've intended and defended to your grave
Know that your time's running
Your time's) running out

I can't forget
All the things I've seen
Now it's a part of me
Now it's a part of me
Now it's a part of me

I can't reject
All the things I've seen

Now it's a part of me
Now it's a part of me
Now it's a part of me
