

So Wrong

Eye Empire

They'll find your weakness
Your terrible secrets
Use 'em like it's only for fun
A million faces
All the same old places
Terrified of what we'll become

So Long
(Is that what you needed to say?)
So Long
(Is that what I needed?)

You were so wrong
You were so wrong
(So wrong about me)
You were so wrong
You were so wrong
So wrong about me

As my life rages
The pressure is contagious
Don't stare directly into the sun
A million faces
Evil conversations
All these words are making me numb

So Long
(Is that what you needed to say?)
So Long
(Is that what I needed?)

You were so wrong
You were so wrong
(So wrong about me)
You were so wrong
You were so wrong
So wrong about me

(How could you believe me)
You don't even know me
