

The Man I Am

Eye Empire

All I wanted was a place to call home
All I wanted is gone
But the rain can't fall forever
But it helped me see downriver

You could never claim to know me now
You have never been the one to love me
Whether by fool or chance
I took a stance
Became the man I am

All I wanted was unconditional
All I wanted was love
But the rain can't fall forever
But it helped me see downriver

You could never claim to know me now
You have never been the one to love me
Whether by fool or chance
I took a stance
Became the man I am

All I wanted was unconditional
All I wanted was love

You could never claim to know me now
You have never been the one to love me
Whether by fool or chance
I took a stance
Became the man I am
