

Weakness

Eye Empire

When you shake my hand better look me in the face
Let my senses see if this moment is a waste

Every time I look into your eyes, I see fear
I see fear feed the lies

I'm trying to play but I
I smell the weakness on you
I smell the weakness on you
I SMELL THE WEAKNESS ON YOU

I can taste your need
Growing greed it's in the air
How could one so weak claim a life that isn't theirs?

Every time I look into you eyes
I see fear
I see fear feed the lies

I'm trying to play but I
I smell the weakness on you
I smell the weakness on you

I smell the weakness on you

I'm trying to play but I
I smell the weakness on you
I smell the weakness on you
I SMELL THE WEAKNESS ON YOU

I SMELL THE WEAKNESS ON YOU

I'm trying to play but I
I smell the weakness on you
I smell the weakness on you
I smell the weakness on you

I'm trying to play but I
I smell the weakness on you
I smell the weakness on you
I SMELL THE WEAKNESS ON YOU

I SMELL THE WEAKNESS ON YOU

Every time I look into your eyes
I see fear
