

Let Me Be Your Love

Fabrizio Faniello

Your look makes me surrender,
Secrets smile that lightness up my life,
Won't you mend this broken heart
You lit a fire in me,

You left a wound nobody else can cure,
I'm that sure.
Don't you tell me that I should get over you?
I can't live a day on my own.

RIT: Let me be your lover girl,
Let me be the one who cares,
I believe is just a perfect thing for you and me.
I can be the world for you,
Let me be your dream come true,
I will hold you in my arms so you won't lose the way.
Let me be your lover.

An everlasting romance,
Is all I hope we'll have if you should stay?
Won't you take away this pain?
If there's a happy ending,

We'll learn to love each other everyday,
Through the years.
Please listen to all that I say to you,
And give me the love that I need.

RIT: Let me be your lover girl...
