

Born Ready

Fade

I dream of
No obstruction
With no illusion
Just to see what made it out of control

Inside this momentum
Scars and agony
With this curse I must breathe in all the dust

I have been
Deceived a thousand times
So scarred up within
But I'm here to stay

Born ready for this all of my life
The time is now so I'll strike with drive
Been ready for this way too long
I'm blessed by irony

Distorted vision overtakes everything
Tainted system's shadows in the darkness
Undertaken by majority
No need to question

'Cross your scars out go
I won't give in'

Don't look back
No regrets
Till pain sets in fight with everything you've got

I have been
Deceived a thousand times
So scarred up within
But I'm here to stay

Born ready for this all of my life
The time is now so I'll strike with drive
Been ready for this way too long
I'm blessed by irony

Distorted vision overtakes everything
Tainted system's shadows in the darkness
Undertaken by majority
No need to question

Born ready for this all of my life x2
No need to question
