

Reality Lost

Fade

He's everything the girls wish for
Never been one yet that could say no
With a single glance they lose their minds
Out in the city dangerous but cool
Looking to score a plaything, break the rules
Everything's reversed in this illusion, yeah

But he doesn't give a damn
Living inside of this game
No need to give a damn
Lost in the plastic fame
Don't look if you can't stand, stand the way that he's living
Reality dissolves
Do you care?

You know that she's a fantasy
The type a girl that brings you to your knees
With a body so lethal no man could hope to survive
A drama queen who never has the time
For all the freaks and geeks standing in line
She's the finest thing in this illusion, yeah!

But she doesn't give a damn
Living inside of this game
No need to give a damn
Lost in the plastic fame
Don't look if you can't stand, stand the way that she's living
Reality dissolves
Why do you care at all?

The lines begin to blur between
The digital and everyday reality
There are the times they wish that the so-called
"Real" world would just be un-installed
Life is better inside this illusion, yeah!

'Cause they just don't give a damn
Living live inside this game
No need to give a damn
Lost in the plastic fame
Don't look if you can't stand, stand the way that they're living
Reality dissolves
Why do you care at all?
