

Generation Black

Faderhead

I got a feeling that I cannot shake
It's that they don't know what they're up against
I got a feeling that they're just not smart enough
They're gonna fuck it up
I got a feeling that I cannot shake
They'll never know what they can't understand
They say they fear that we're the walking dead

We're Generation Black

I got a feeling that I cannot shake
We'll run together on our own again
I got a feeling that we'll roam the night alone
We're gonna light it up
I got a feeling that I cannot shake
This style of beauty meant to deviate
They say there's something wrong inside our heads

We're Generation Black
