Daylight

I've got a catacomb with fur covered styrofoam So come over now and sleep Time isn't here again wasted thoughts that could've been Now we can devise our plan

Daylight Daylight Daylight won't find us here

I've catacomb with flags that flew fifty years ago Let sleep overcome your mind God isn't safe again molests trees and chops down men So we must revise our plan

Failure