

Lovin' Me

Faith Evans

Nicci: It's been a long time... Yeah, since I looked in a mirror... and liked what I see

Keke: It was a hard climb... Yeah, things are much clearer... in my reality and how people see me, yeah

Syleena: Always feeling ashamed, (Hey), because of what I was told... Now I'm taking the ugly, and made it beautiful, yeah

I found me a place, where I ain't doin' nothin', but lovin' myself, and everything about me, yeah...

Said I found me a place, and it don't even matter, what nobody else thinks, 'cause I'm lovin' me, (yeah)

Faith: It's been a long time... since I sang on a song... They said my voice was right, but my curves were all wrong

Monifah: It's such a hard time... when the media chooses... who wins or who loses, but I gotta fix what your illusions

Syleena: Oh, no, no longer feelin' the pain... I'm more than good enough... Gave my power away... But now I back and stronger

I found me a place, where I ain't doin' nothin', but lovin' myself, and everything about me, yeah...

I found me a place, and it don't even matter, what nobody else thinks, 'cause I'm lovin' me, (yeah)

Together: If I'm not a size 2, it don't fit you, it's okay, (Syleena) I refuse to be dismissed because my skin is darker than yours, (Nicci) all that power when say "You're pretty in the face"
