

Never Ever Ever

Family of the Year

You're fucking kidding, right? You stay out of line
You wanna love me but you don't know how to do it right
I saw your Instagram, you knew I'd see it, man
I shoulda left you crying on the phone in Amsterdam

I wanna put you through the pain I been going through
That's why I'll never ever ever ever leave you
I wanna put you through the pain I been going through
That's why I'll never ever ever ever leave you

Oh, wait another fact, I wanna tell you that
I'm gonna break and find my heart and I'ma take it back
Shouldn't fuck around, this isn't mean town
You know I love you and I'm never gonna let you down

Never let you feel the pain I been going through
That's why I'm never ever ever ever gonna leave you
I'll never let you feel the pain I been going through
That's why I'm never ever ever ever gonna leave you

You're fucking kidding, right? You stay out of line
You wanna love me but you don't know how to do it right
I saw your Instagram, you knew I'd see it, man
I shoulda left you crying on the phone from Amsterdam

I'll never let you feel the pain I been going through (pain, pain, pain)
That's why I'm never ever ever ever gonna leave you (pain, pain, pain)
