

Raw Honey

Family of the Year

You're a moonlit kiss
A drop of blood, a burning bridge
I showed you money, you don't know what it is
You're raw honey

You're a broken bone
You're the dark abyss below
Cold and sunny, blind by the snow
You're raw honey

You're raw
It's a drag being bad
But it's all that you have
When your heart is a mess
And you need something to confess
It's a drag being bad
But it's all that you have

You're an open book
You're the first drugs you took
Far above me how does it look
You're raw honey

You're a golden child
You're the masses getting riled
The world unreconciled
You're raw girl

You're raw
It's a drag being bad
But it's all that you have
When your heart is a mess
And you need something to confess
It's a drag being bad
But it's all that you have
