

Hell In The Headlights

Famous Last Words

Crash the impact that took my life,
But what happened to the little girl still trapped inside?
Did she make it out of there alive?
Did she survive?

The headlights showed me the light,
Lit the tunnel down the road to my demise.
All we went for was a little drive,
Who knew that it would be the last time?

You spread these lies,
Just another way to justify.
That our lives are gone and we must move on,
But that is not alright.
All I needed was a little time
And all I wanted was to say goodbye.
Well, I can't move on, this is all so wrong
And I will not comply.

My life's decaying!
But what happened to the little girl still trapped inside?
Did she make it out of there alive?
Did she survive?

I accept the path that's chosen for me,
But leave my girl alone, she has a life to lead.
Don't mercy me, no sympathy,
Don't take her life, god, just take me.
My life is fading

You spread these lies,
Just another way to justify.
That our lives are gone and we must move on,
But that is not alright.
All I needed was a little time
And all I wanted was to say goodbye.
Well, I can't move on, this is all so wrong
And I will not comply.

The fire's blazing,
I hear her cry!
God, don't forsake me,
Don't let her die!

Another victim of a DUI.
Murder, a fucking homicide!
You can save her life tonight, don't let her die!

(You spread these lies, just another way to justify)

You spread these lies,
Just another way to justify.
That our lives are gone and we must move on,
But that is not alright.
All I needed was a little time
And all I wanted was to say goodbye.
Well, I can't move on, this is all so wrong

And I will not comply.

I'll beg and I'll plead,
I'll do whatever it takes, god, please just promise me,
She'll be safe without her father.
Promise me!

She won't understand, she won't believe.
She'll wonder where I've and gone and why I had to leave.
She'll be told that her daddy's gone away
To a place in the sky, that's where I'll stay.
In the night she will meet me in her dreams,
That's as close as we will ever be.
I'll whisper in her ear and I will say:
Daddy loves you, everything's okay.
