

Lust Of The Lost

Famous Last Words

There comes a time when all else fails
You put the pressure on me how can I prevail?
This weight I carry keeps piling on
He is not the one, love blinds what's right from wrong
What's right from wrong

Watch their lust it sparks alive
And it tears me up inside
I'll admit I'm terrified
Jealousy is my new guide
I must reside, I must abide
Live out my life caught in a lie
But I might die, if I don't try

I try to find as I search my mind
Will you take his hand and leave me behind?
The aisle clears as my hope eludes
He's burning through my fucking solitude

Watch their lust it sparks alive
And it tears me up inside
I'll admit I'm terrified
Jealousy is my new guide
I must reside, I must abide
Live out my life caught in a lie
But I might die, if I don't try

I'm so sick of this romantic tragedy (this tragedy!)
I'm plunging head first to insanity (insanity!)

He's come to stay and I never said that it was okay
His broken words won't make this right, I can see straight through al l his lies
This can't be real I don't care how he makes her feel
This is not his place and in any case he can pack up and get out of m y face!

Watch their lust it sparks alive
And it tears me up inside
I'll admit I'm terrified
Jealousy is my new guide
I must reside, I must abide
Live out my life caught in a lie
But I might die, if I don't try

Die young!
Can we stop this wedding?
He is not her other, I'm her only one
Back off!
He holds her safe and sound
Even now, while she's caught in his whisper!
