

Victim Of The Virtuoso

Famous Last Words

Into the night!
You disappear in the fog but know that won't oppress us ignorantly stroll along cause your innocence is what I thrive on what I thrive on

Anything in life worth fighting for
It makes you think of what you'd do for it and more
cause if you had your vital prize
you'd be in perfect paradise
which is why I follow her this perfect girl which is why I follow her
, I Follow her!

This Night I stray from all uncertainty do my actions clear my slate of purity (that's in me)
If I sit back and let it be, I'll Never know true harmony so it's time I cut these chains and set myself free (set myself free)

Set me free!
So everyone out in this crowd, have you ever felt taken down?
Let the rage build up inside, so fuck it, just throw it down!
just throw it down!

Anything in life worth fighting for
It makes you think of what you'd do for it and more
cause if you had your vital prize
you'd be in perfect paradise
which is why I follow her this perfect girl because she makes my new world this perfect girl
I'll follow her!
I'll lurk along in the darkness and fantasize of what she means to me

There's a girl, she's taken my heart from me Can't you see, that she's perfect for this scene and she'll always be better than the rest and I must confess that I've e meant every word I've said.
I never thought it'd be true but just open my eyes and see true serendipity

She's Like a sickness secret mistress let me be just like a drug I'm having withdrawls on my knees I'm screaming!
She's Like a sickness secret mistress let me be just like a drug I'm having withdrawls on my knees I'm screaming!
Please my darling, let me fucking be!
The absence of your presence, know it's killing me.
So now its time I cut these chains and set myself free!
