

Blood And Honey

Fancy

Midnight in the city and everyone's asleep
See the shadow walking in the dark.
Here she comes
she's all in black
Long hair flowing down her back
Gotta get her out of my mind.
Honey
I wanna kiss you
honey
give me your head.
Honey
I wanna kiss you
baby
Let me waste away upon your tender lips.
Oh
she loves blood and honey
She's got the devil in her eyes.
(She's got the devil in her eyes.)
She loves blood and honey.
They say nobody survives a deadly kiss.
Oh
she loves blood and honey
She's got the devil in her eyes.
(She's got the devil in her eyes.)
She loves blood and honey.
Devil is her love and it's the kiss of death to love
Now she's lonely walking down your street.
She's looking for a bite to eat.
When she loves she really leaves her mark
Pain in her eyes and death in her smile:
It's a one-way-trip to hell!
Give in to desire and she'll put your soul on fire.
Velvety eyes and pearly skin.
When she'll knock at your door
your night will begin
Oh
I wanna kiss you
baby
I wanna kiss you
honey
I wanna kiss you
baby.
Got to kill the lady who loves blood and honey.
Oh
She loves blood and honey
...
She loves blood and honey
Honey
I wanna kiss you
honey
give me your head
Oh
she loves blood and honey
