

Burns

Far

How can I put it? You're fuckin' dead to me
But I'm not scared or sad, I'm smiling, I'm smiling
You were on my mind but now my mind is gone
Oh, what a relief. What a wonderful war!

It left me so jaded
Unhappy, all complicated

God, sex, politics, money and songs
It's always about somebody doing you wrong
But it's never an accident, there's always a choice
No one can take it, gotta give away your voice
So get through it, just let it fall away
And when you're scared or sad, just keep trying

I could never forgive you for the things you put me through
But I had to let go
It was all I could do

It left me so jaded
Unhappy, all complicated...
