

Messiah

Fear Of Domination

Today seems to be a good day today I show you the way in this dark place we breed but now it's time to proceed

Now I am reclaiming my throne

I am the Alpha and the Omega the first and the last the beginning and the end will you ever deny that I am the beginning of the divine touch I will lead the chaos astray I am the end of everything I will light the darkness away

Now I am at my throne

I'll get rid of flesh 'n bones and rise again as the messiah it's a reincarnation my soul will ascend to a higher place and get my life back to trace will he bring the salvation I will turn your bones to dust and I will make the metal rust children scream damnation you will burn in divine light and still you'll claim that I am kind I am the saviour, I am and you can never deny that

There will be nowhere to run you shall all go with a boom
you shall all go with a boom

You all go boom
you all go boom
you all shall go go with a boom
