

Bitter Man

Feargal Sharkey

He gave everything
His heart, his dreaming
She just spat it back at him
This time she's leaving
This time she's leaving

She walks out and closes the door
I wonder in the corner
Catches fall, stairs echo
This time she's leaving
Yes, this time she's leaving

Each new day he tries again
Tries to smile but oh, the pain
Wonders if he'll go insane
'Cause he's a bitter man

No one really liked him
No one really can
That's the way he likes it
That he understands
'Cause he's a bitter man
