

Exploding Heart Disorder

Fearless Vampire Killers

Five drops of rainbow,
Bliss down my throat,
Like milkshakes on the dam,
The fires,
Grisly will-o'-the-wisps,
Laughing dead,
Out on the marshlands,
Cry out like the black,
And mangy crows that watch,
Perched on his grave,
A cold refuse strewn recluse of stone,

I swear I feel you near me,
But your scent will induce,
Exploding Heart Disorder,

Gunfire clatters out,
I the chill urban sprawl,
How it sickens my heart so,
To recall,
A world that it seems,
Was never really there,

I swear I feel you near me,
But your scent will induce,
Exploding Heart Disorder,

Forgive this trouble in my heart,
Don't you know,
What I'd give to take this pain away and,
Tare the world apart,
Look what you've done you've lost it,
All I am is all you left behind,
Leave me if you would be so kind,

The boys say it's fear,
That they don't know we're here,
That this town will keep us safe,
I say believe that,
But don't you come cryin'
When they're rippin' out your throats,

I swear I feel you near me,
But your scent will induce,
Exploding Heart Disorder,

Forgive this trouble in my heart,
Don't you know,
What I'd give to take this pain away and,
Tare the world apart,
Look what you've done you've lost IF,
All I am is what you left,
Well it'll do for now so don't you be distressed,
If the disruption of my heart,
Could be so kind,
Then let me leave this,
Faded light behind!
