

What Am I Gonna Do Now

Ferlin Husky

What am I gonna do now she's gone she's broken every vow
I'll forget her someday somehow what am I gonna do now Each time I think of the past how love was mine and went away s o fast
I've hurt as much as my heart will allow what am I gonna do now I'm afraid of living alone it looks like that's how I'll be fro m now on
To have her back I would humbly bow what am I gonna do now
To have her back I would humbly bow oh what am I gonna do now
