

Wrong

Ferlin Husky

Would it be wrong to love you you know how much I care
Look at the dreams I fashioned could you desire to share them
I would be yours forever if you were mine alone
Would you be true or leave me blue I wonder would it be wrong
Is there a secret dear when you give me your smile
I'd like to know the answer and you've been teasin' all the while
Would it be wrong to love you could you be mine alone
My heart may break but for my sake I wonder would it be wrong
Is there a secret...
