You're Always The One

Ferlin Husky

When my world around me crumbles when in darkness I stumble Who guides me walks beside me who shows me the sign Who never mistreates me tells me she needs me Who do I turn to you're always the one Though my faults are many you'll never find any Praise me for some things condemn me for none A vision of sweetness in a moment of weakness Who do I turn to you're always the one Sharing caring overlooking the wrong things that I might have d one Never demanding when I need understanding who do I turn to you' re always the one Sharing caring overlooking... You're always the one
