

Heart and Mind

Fiction Factory

Through your heart and mind
It's what you say to me
See them come to call
Baring broken teeth
And all the hands to heal
Scars upon mind's eye
Fitting all that's perfect
Underneath blue sky

Go heart and mind
All in good kind
Go heart and mind
It's better to simply
Go heart and mind
All in good kind
Go heart and mind
It's better to simply

Now the fault lies here
Leading guilty lives
See them now smile wide
Sharpening their knives
All of the hands to heal
Scars upon mind's eye
Fitting all that's pretty, perfect
Underneath blue sky

Go heart and mind
All in good kind
Go heart and mind
It's better to simply

Feel your heart and mind
It's what you say to me
Fill up your heart and mind
It's what you say to me

Go heart and mind
All in good kind
Go heart and mind
It's better to simply
Go heart and mind
All in good kind
Go heart and mind
It's better to simply
Go heart and mind
All in good kind
Go heart and mind
It's better to simply
Go heart and mind
All in good kind
Go heart and mind
It's better to simply
