Still For A While

Fields

Dont be sad my friend
All these things should end
If they were infinate
We would see their worthless

Dont be down my dear

Its just cold draws near

Lie down still for a while

I can feel there is something

Coming on my friend

All these things must end They are not infinate We can see thier worthless

Dont be down my dear

Its jut cold draws near

Lie down still for a while

I can feel there is something

So dont be sad my friend All these things must end Cause if they were inifInate We would see their worthless

Dont be down my dear

Its just cold draws near

Lie down still for a while

I can feel there is something
