

Leaving

Fight or Flight

Time lost, miles away
In a world of bullets
In a bed, an empty space
A picture frame, a portrait

The night falls, I'm awake
I'm left to rust in silence
Withdraw my mistakes
I'm left to trust in violence

Well can you teach me how to fly
In a world so shallow?
Will you show me I'm alive
Or find a way to get home

Well I'm alive
But paralyzed
By the sight of bloodshed fights
Shoot 'em right between the eyes
Can I let it go
When I'm leaving?
I'm weak inside
But built to fight
Living life through compromise
Terrified to prove me right
Can I let this go
When I'm leaving?

Headstones borrow names
Inscribed by anxious patients
A fate calls, a blurry fate
Lies in the hands we're chased with
I'm bearing all
Bombs away
Curing fear with makeshift plans
Conquer the fall, we'll do it
Comfort the fall with bullshit

Can you teach me how to fly
In a world so shallow?
Will you show me I'm alive
Or find a way to get home

Well I'm alive
But paralyzed
By the sight of bloodshed fights
Shoot 'em right between the eyes
Can I let it go
When I'm leaving?
I'm weak inside
But built to fight
Living life through compromise
Terrified to prove me right
Can I let this go
When I'm leaving?

Can you teach me how to fly

In a world so shallow
Will you show me I'm alive
Or find a way to get home

Well I'm alive
But paralyzed
By the sight of bloodshed fights
Shoot 'em right between the eyes
Can I let it go
When I'm leaving?
I'm weak inside
But built to fight
Living life through compromise
Terrified to prove me right
Can I let this go
When I'm leaving?
