

Heart

Fight The Fade

You were someone I wanted to be
And there was nothing between you and me
Then came the rain and washed away your paint
Your true colors tore you away

I'm holding out my heart just take it
Letting go of all I was before
So tired of this constant aching
I don't even want it anymore
I'm holding out my heart just take it
Letting go of all I was before
So tired of this constant aching
I don't even want it anymore

It's time you see the line that you've left behind
The one you'd never cross, so now I am lost and I can't find the light
There's no one close to me, and I can hardly breathe
I just can't believe you'd leave me this way

I'm holding out my heart just take it
Letting go of all I was before
So tired of this constant aching
I don't even want it anymore
I'm holding out my heart just take it

Letting go of all I was before
So tired of this constant aching
I don't even want it anymore

Holding out my heart, holding out my heart
Holding out my heart
Holding out my heart, holding out my heart
Holding out my heart

Help me, I'm dying for relief
Reaching, I just wanna believe
In love, in hope, and peace
With someone next to me
I'd give up everything
To live out this dream

I'm holding out my heart just take it
Letting go of all I was before
So tired of this constant aching
I don't even want it anymore
I'm holding out my heart just take it
Letting go of all I was before
So tired of this constant aching
I don't even want it anymore

Holding out my heart, holding out my heart
Holding out my heart
Holding out my heart, holding out my heart
Holding out my heart
