

Old Wounds

Fight The Fade

My heart is torn 'cause I warned you before
About the company you keep but you sit and drink
The venom of the snake that's coiled around your neck
Yeah, around your neck

(I don't know who you are)
(Old wounds)

I don't know who you are
You're not the same man you were before
I can't pretend not to see the dark
But I swear I'm through opening old wounds

You might say I'm burning the bridge we made
But the fire I'll use came from you
When you struck the match to burn me at the stake
You made your bed, I hope it keeps you awake

I don't know who you are
You're not the same man you were before
I can't pretend not to see the dark
But I swear I'm through opening old wounds

Old wounds!
(I don't know who you are)
(You're not the same man you were before)
(I can't pretend not to see the dark)
(But I swear I'm through opening old wounds)

I don't know who you are
You're not the same man you were before
I can't pretend not to see the dark
But I swear I'm through opening old wounds
I don't know who you are
You're not the same man you were before
I can't pretend not to see the dark
But I swear I'm through opening old wounds

Opening old wounds!
